

Japan's Morinaga Milk group won the Bronze Award in the “Dairy & Health Products”

01 October 2021 | News | By Poonam Bhosale

The International ARC Awards competition is the top of its kind for annual reporting and is conducted by MerComm, Inc.,

Morinaga Milk Group's "Integrated Report 2020" won the Bronze Award in the "Dairy & Health Products" category of the "Traditional Annual Report" division in one of annual reporting's largest competitions, the International ARC Awards 2021.

The International ARC Awards competition is the top of its kind for annual reporting and is conducted by MerComm, Inc.,* an independent awards organization. Every year, corporations, NGOs, and government agencies from around the world enter the competition, for which this year saw 1,875 entries from 28 countries. The Morinaga Milk Group integrated report informs stakeholders about the Group's business activities and philosophy for the creation of greater corporate value and sustainable growth.

MerComm, Inc. is an independent awards organization that acknowledges corporations, organizations, and individuals for their original contributions to the international field of corporate communications in such areas as company guides, business reports, and corporate websites. MerComm, Inc. functions in an impartial manner, free of any advertisers or sponsors.