The outlook on all senior unsecured long-term ratings assigned to the bonds issued by Barry Callebaut Services N.V. has also been changed to 'positive' from 'stable'.

The outlook on all senior unsecured long-term ratings assigned to the bonds issued by Barry Callebaut Services N.V. has also been changed to 'positive' from 'stable'.

Paolo Leschiutta, Senior Vice President and lead analyst for Barry Callebaut at Moody's, said: "The outlook change to 'positive' reflects Barry Callebaut's strong operating performance and our expectation that its profitability and cash flow generation will be relatively immune to the deteriorating macroeconomic conditions, leading to further strengthening in its credit metrics over the next 12 to 18 months.

Ben De Schryver, CFO of Barry Callebaut, said: "We are pleased with Moody's credit outlook change. It validates the successful strengthening of our balance sheet and the focus on our core business.
