

Ahmad Tea & Sangla Foods introduce London Blend in Malaysia

28 May 2024 | News

The result is a magical symphony of flavours that will captivate the senses of tea connoisseurs and novices alike

The result is a magical symphony of flavours that will captivate the senses of tea connoisseurs and novices alike

Ahmad Tea, the renowned global tea brand announced the arrival of its latest creation, the London Blend, in the vibrant tea market of Malaysia. This exceptional blend is crafted with precision and passion, embodying English tea culture's timeless elegance and versatile essence. Malaysia has a longstanding tradition of enjoying tea, and the London Blend will undoubtedly add a touch of sophistication to this beloved ritual. Whether it's a morning pick-me-up, an afternoon indulgence, or an elegant evening accompaniment, the London Blend promises to elevate every tea-drinking experience.

Ahmad Tea's London Blend stands out from other tea varieties due to its versatility. Customers can savour the rich and robust flavour with a touch of milk, indulge in the refreshing twist with a squeeze of lemon, or experience the unique pleasures of the local favourite - teh tarik.

The London Blend is skilfully balanced using hand-picked tea leaves sourced from the finest tea-growing regions. The result is a magical symphony of flavours that will captivate the senses of tea connoisseurs and novices alike.

Breaking away from the notion that premium quality demands a hefty price tag, the London Blend is expertly crafted to offer tea enthusiasts a delightful experience without compromising on taste or quality.

This value-oriented approach makes the London Blend a standout option among other tea selections in the Malaysian market.