UAE-based Puck, a cheese brand, announced the launch of its very first limited-time flavour jar: Zaatar Cream Cheese. The newly designed, limited edition jars are now available on shelves at select retailers in KSA, UAE, Oman, Kuwait, Bahrain, and Lebanon. Earlier this month, Puck announced a pre-launch competition where 50 lucky winners in the UAE and KSA were able to get their hands on the jars weeks before the public.

This launch of its latest mouthwatering innovation marks the brand's first limited edition cream cheese release.

Renowned as the number one cream cheese jars brand in both KSA and UAE, Puck continues to captivate palates with its diverse range of high-quality dairy products. Whether spread on toast, incorporated into savoury recipes, or enjoyed straight from the jar, Puck Zaatar Cream Cheese is made with 100 per cent milk, promising to elevate mealtimes with its irresistible blend of flavours.

Crafted to delight taste buds, Puck Zaatar Cream Cheese is in a new modern 450g jar and will only be available until stocks last. People of all ages are encouraged to act swiftly to savour this treat, as once the stocks run out, it's gone for good!

The Zaatar Cream Cheese is available at Panda in Saudi Arabia and selected retailers in the UAE, Oman, Kuwait, Bahrain, and Lebanon.
