

Saputo announces senior leadership appointments

11 September 2024 | News

These appointments are effective immediately

These appointments are effective immediately

Saputo announced several leadership appointments that will support Carl Colizza who assumed the role of President and CEO on August 9, 2024. These appointments are effective immediately.

Frank Guido has been appointed to the role of COO, of Saputo Inc. In his new position, he will be overseeing North American, European and International operations and will play a key role in the Company's continuous efforts to drive growth and operational results within the organisation.

Leanne Cutts assumes the newly created position of Chief Commercial Officer (CCO), Saputo Inc. Cutts will be responsible for driving commercial strategy, sales development in global markets and channels, and overseeing marketing, brand management, and market insights functions for all divisions.

Dominick Bombino has been appointed to the role of President and COO, of the Dairy Division (USA).

Steve Douglas has been appointed to the role of President and COO, of the Dairy Division (UK).

Tom Atherton has announced his intention to leave Saputo to pursue other opportunities. He will remain with Saputo until the end of the calendar year to support Douglas during the transition.