World Whiskey Society (WWS), known for scouring the globe to create the world's most interesting whiskeys announced its latest release: a 20-year-old Family Reserve cask-proof whiskey.

As AIKO Brands celebrates its 20th anniversary, they reflect on the extraordinary journey that has brought them here – a journey defined by craftsmanship, connection, and the enduring support of a loyal community of wine and spirits enthusiasts. Over two decades, AIKO Brands has grown into a symbol of passion and excellence, uniting people around the world with exceptional wine and spirits.

This year, they're marking this milestone with something truly extraordinary: the release of the Family Reserve, a whiskey that encapsulates the very essence of their heritage. Aged for 20 years, it is a rare and remarkable spirit crafted to honour the past, celebrate the present, and inspire the future.

"This special Family Reserve release is a tribute to our father, Igor Kogan, inspired by his vision to create something timeless and beautiful â?? something that brings people together to celebrate life's most precious moments. This release is more than just whiskey; it's a story of transformation, growth, and the relentless pursuit of excellence" says Alex and Irina Kogan, Founders of World Whiskey Society. "As we raise our glasses to two decades of AIKO Brands, we invite you to celebrate with us â?? honouring the past, savouring the present, and toasting to the future," adds Feliks Shekhtman, Aiko Brands Managing Partner. "Here's to the next 20 years of shared stories, laughter, and extraordinary whisky."
