

Heritage Distilling names Michael P. Carrosino as CFO

01 January 2025 | News

Veteran finance executive with more than 40 yearsâ?? experience to lead Heritageâ??s financial operations and manage capital market transactions

Veteran finance executive with more than 40 yearsâ?? experience to lead Heritageâ??s financial operations and manage capital market transactions

Heritage Distilling Company a leading craft distiller of innovative premium brands, announced the appointment of Michael P. Carrosino as its Chief Financial Officer (CFO). A veteran finance executive with over 40 years of experience, Carrosino will be responsible for leading the Companyâ??s financial planning and operations, managing liquidity, directing capital planning and guiding capital market transactions to ensure Heritage is well-positioned to execute its expansion strategy.

Justin Stiefel, Chief Executive Officer of HDC, commented, â??We are thrilled to have Michael join Heritage as our new CFO. His impressive track record across multiple industries, combined with his accounting, financial operations and public company experience, will bolster our leadership team and corporate structure. Michael will be instrumental in supporting our growth plans at a pivotal time in Heritageâ??s evolution. I look forward to working closely with him as we continue to expand our offerings to consumers and grow the value of our enterprise.â??