

JDSS elevates wine culture in Thailand with new offerings

05 February 2025 | News

This collection features premium varieties from the esteemed Margaret River region in Western Australia, such as Semillon Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Shiraz, and Cabernet Merlot

This collection features premium varieties from the esteemed Margaret River region in Western Australia, such as Semillon Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Shiraz, and Cabernet Merlot

JDSS, a premier wine and spirits import and distribution company in Asia, announced its exclusive distribution agreements with several prominent wine brands.

Effective immediately, JDSS will manage all exclusive distribution and marketing activities of specially selected wines from over eight renowned wine brands, which include Ridolfi Montalcino, Mendel Wines, Amelia Park Wines and Casa E. Di Mirafiore, Quinta das Marias, Santos & Seixo Wines, Bodegas Bodem, Luis Felipe Edwards, in select regions in Thailand.

JDSS's latest lineup includes a diverse selection of wines deeply rooted in tradition. This collection features premium varieties from the esteemed Margaret River region in Western Australia, such as Semillon Sauvignon Blanc, Chardonnay, Shiraz, and Cabernet Merlot. Additionally, it showcases classified growths from Bordeaux's Left Bank and wines from the Right Bank's Pomerol and Saint-Émilion. The lineup also highlights varietals from the Loire Valley, one of the world's most renowned wine-producing areas in central France, among other offerings.

The distribution will enhance the availability of these wines in the provinces of Thailand. JDSS is collaborating with wholesalers to make it more convenient for consumers to access its wines, ensuring efficient after-sales services and fast delivery.

JDSS is dedicated to representing iconic wine brands from world-renowned wine regions while enhancing consumer understanding of traditional and modern winemaking practices and distinguished vineyards and wineries.