Silver Hill Duck, a fully integrated premium duck producer, celebrated its entry into the Saudi Arabian market with a special showcase event for the Chinese New Year.

The event took place at Yauatcha restaurant in Riyadh, where the Chinese New Year-themed decorations complemented a carefully curated menu that showcased the quality synonymous with Silver Hill Duck. Guests enjoyed classic dishes such as Peking duck and duck crispy rolls, along with contemporary interpretations of Chinese regional cuisine.

After achieving success in Europe and Asia, including Singapore, Hong Kong, and Macau, Silver Hill Duck aims to deliver the same level of quality, consistency, and culinary excellence to Saudi Arabia.

Micheál Briody, the Managing Director of Silver Hill Duck, expressed his gratitude, stating, "First, I would like to thank the team at Yauatcha for hosting Silver Hill Duck on the occasion of Chinese New Year, and to all the VIP guests who took the time to attend the exclusive showcase."
