Cometeer, the innovator behind freshly brewed, flash-frozen coffee that delivers premium-quality coffee in a convenient, time-saving format, announces a new partnership with Proud Mary, a celebrated Australia- and United States-based high-end coffee roaster. This collaboration will feature three of Proud Mary's coffees, now available in Cometeer's convenient, single-serve frozen format, marking a bold step forward in Cometeer's mission to bring world-class coffee to a wider audience with uncompromising quality and convenience.

"I believe that Proud Mary Coffee runs one of the best coffee shops on earthâ?? they have redefined the cafe experience with pour-over menus and perfectly dialed in brews," says Alex Kaplan, Cometeer's Head of Coffee, "At Cometeer, we want to bring that experience to everyone by solving the challenging problem of brewing coffee. We are honored to bring some of the world's very best coffees in our time-saving format to more people than ever before through this partnership."

Cometeer and Proud Mary's collaboration debuts with three coffees:

Humbler â?? Coffee made by the people, for the people. A blend designed to cut through milk for a rich, syrupy-sweet espresso or a chocolate fudge latte.

Ethiopia Deri Kidame â?? A syrupy-sweet natural coffee from Guji, Ethiopia, with vibrant red fruit and layered complexity. Sourced from over 350 smallholders and processed at Deri Kidame, this coffee bursts with terroir and care.

Brazil Mantiqueira â?? A cozy, sweet natural from Brazil's famed Mantiqueira mountains, with notes of brown sugar and soft fruit.
