Salomé Azevedo, Business Executive Officer, Dairy, Beverages, and Confectionery, Nestlé Central and West Africa Region, has been appointed as the Managing Director for Nestlé Ghana Ltd. This appointment follows the recent appointment of Georgios Badaro to Nestlé Indonesia as CEO.

Salomé joins Nestlé Ghana Ltd. with a wealth of experience, spanning over 20 years, 15 of which are in various roles within the commercial field in sub-Saharan Africa. Before her recent appointment, she held the position of Business Executive Officer for Dairy, Beverages, and Confectionery, overseeing 25 countries in the Nestlé Central and West Africa Region based in Ghana. Salome's extensive expertise will undoubtedly contribute to the continued success of Nestlé Ghana Ltd.

Commenting on her new role, Salome stated, "I am honoured to take on the position of Managing Director for Nestlé Ghana Ltd. This role presents a unique opportunity to work with the talented team in Ghana to continue fulfilling our mission to prioritise quality, nutritious products and innovation while contributing positively to the communities we serve".

Based in Accra, Salome Azevedo will oversee Nestlé's operations in Ghana, Liberia, and Sierra Leone under the Central and West Africa Region of the Company.
