

Diageo completes sale of shareholding in Guinness Ghana Breweries

08 July 2025 | News

Diageo has retained ownership of the Guinness brand and other Diageo brands currently produced by Guinness Ghana

DIAGEO

Diageo has retained ownership of the Guinness brand and other Diageo brands currently produced by Guinness Ghana

Diageo announces the completion of the sale of its 80.4 per cent shareholding in Guinness Ghana Breweries plc to Castel Group. The sale was initially announced on 28th January 2025.

Diageo has retained ownership of the Guinness brand and other Diageo brands currently produced by Guinness Ghana. Those brands will continue to be brewed, produced and distributed by Guinness Ghana under the terms of new long-term licence and royalty agreements. Guinness Ghana will also continue to distribute Diageo's international premium spirits brands in Ghana.