

SPYRT Worldwide Expands Ukrainian Vodka Portfolio Across 13 U.S. States and D.C., Bringing Premium Craftsmanship and Cultural Heritage to American Consumers

23 September 2025 | News

SPYRT Worldwide, the veteran-founded importer championing Ukraine's finest wines and spirits, today announced a major national expansion of its vodka lineup. Award-winning brands Ukrainian Freedom, Ukrainian Spirit, and Hetman Elite are now available in 13 states and Washington, D.C., marking a significant step in SPYRT's mission to showcase Ukraine's craftsmanship and resilience to a broader audience. "Expanding into these key markets is not only a business milestone, but a way to spotlight Ukraine's excellence on the world stage," said Sam Lerman, Founder and CEO of SPYRT Worldwide. "Consumers are responding enthusiastically to both the quality of our vodkas and the purpose behind them." SPYRT's expanded distribution network includes Pacific Edge in Arizona, California, Colorado, Nevada, and Washington; Kramer Beverage in New Jersey; Well Crafted Wine & Beverage Co. in D.C., Maryland, and Virginia; and Burke Distributing in Massachusetts and Rhode Island. The portfolio highlights Ukraine's rich distilling heritage. Hetman Elite Vodka, from Lviv, embodies tradition and precision, earning 98 points, Double Gold, and Best of Show Vodka from WSWA in 2025. Ukrainian Spirit Vodka, from Lutsk, blends premium grains with water sourced from the Volyn forest and was awarded 95 points and Double Gold by WSWA in 2025. Ukrainian Freedom Vodka, a tribute to Ukraine's independence, combines pristine water and premium grains, delivering a bold and pure profile. Founded in 2022, SPYRT Worldwide is veteran-owned and committed to promoting Ukrainian heritage while supporting humanitarian and demining initiatives. Each bottle sold contributes to the company's mission of empowering the people of Ukraine.
