

Campbell's Appoints Mohit Anand President of Snacks Division

24 February 2026 | News

Anand will report to Campbell's President and Chief Executive Officer, Mick Beekhuizen

Anand will report to Campbell's President and Chief Executive Officer, Mick Beekhuizen

The Campbell's Company (Campbell's) announced the appointment of Mohit Anand as Executive Vice President (EVP) and President, Snacks, effective Feb. 23, 2026. He will lead a portfolio of advantaged snack brands, including Goldfish, Pepperidge Farm, Snyder's of Hanover, Lance, Kettle Brand, Cape Cod, Snack Factory and Late July.

Anand will report to Campbell's President and Chief Executive Officer, Mick Beekhuizen and become a member of the company's Operating Committee and an Executive Officer. He succeeds Elizabeth Duggan, who is leaving the company.

"With some of the best brands in the business, Campbell's has the right to win in snacking. Adding a leader like Mohit to our talented team will help drive change and deliver the growth we know our Snacks portfolio can achieve," said Beekhuizen. "Throughout his career, Mohit has consistently increased sales, improved margins and enhanced operational efficiency on CPG businesses. His proven general management capabilities and strong commercial acumen will help return our Snacks division to sustainable growth."

With more than three decades of experience, Anand has served in a variety of food, beverage and CPG leadership roles across the globe. As President, Snacks, he will drive the long-term growth and margin expansion of Campbell's Snacks division, supported by its portfolio of category-leading brands, a strong innovation pipeline and an advantaged distribution network.

Anand joins Campbell's from Kellanova, which is now part of Mars, Incorporated, after a recent acquisition. Most recently, he served as Senior Vice President & General Manager in the Accelerator division of Mars Snacking and was a key member of the division's integration team. Before that, he led Kellanova's frozen food business based in Chicago.